

Prince Andrew To Attend Meet At Mayo On Oct 10 To Spend Two Days In College Campus

Britain's Prince Andrew would be coming to India on October 10. The Duke of York would be here as the patron of Round Square schools and would be attending its international conference being co-hosted by Mayo College and Mayo College Girls' School, Ajmer. The Prince is expected to spend two days here at the Mayo College campus and participate in its inauguration.

According to the convenor of the international conference Dinesh Bhatnagar, who is also the Bursar of Mayo College, "His arrival to the college on October 10 is confirmed. He would attend the inauguration on October 11 and is expected to stay here for two days."

Apart from Prince Andrew, the conference, being hosted for the third time in India and for the first time at Mayo, would also be attended by a host of dignitaries, including Gaj Singh, Shiv Khera, Mallika Sarabhai, Aruna Roy and others.

The Round Square is a worldwide association of more than 70 schools in five continents. Every year it hosts a conference with the aim of helping students from its member schools make a strong commitment, to personal development

The 2003 conference was hosted by St. Cyprian's School and St. Stithians School in South Africa. Next year, the conference was hosted at Australia and in 2006 at Scotland. In 2007 Daly College, Indore played host to it.

"About 80 schools from 22 countries across the globe are members of Round Square. We are expecting about 640 delegates, including 400 children, to attend the five-day conference this year. All delegates would put up in the campus," said Bhatnagar.

"The conference will be managed by students themselves. Every day there are guest speakers besides cultural programmes in the evening," he said.

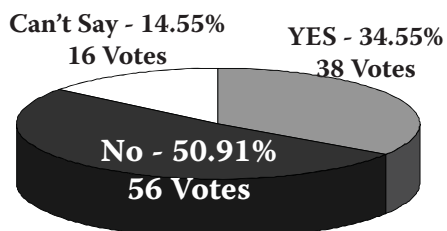

"Besides, one day has been marked for adventure when children would be travelling to Chittorgarh, Jaipur, etc. and another day has been kept aside for social work. This year the theme of the conference is "Tamaso Maa Jyotirga Maya" i.e. Lead me from darkness to light," he added.

The schools participating from India include Scindia Kanya Vidyalaya Gwalior, The Assam Valley School, Daly College Indore, Doon School Dehradun, etc.

FEMALE FOETICIDE

A crime in itself

A worried woman went to her gynaecologist and said:

'Doctor, I have a serious problem and desperately need your help! My baby girl is not even 1 yr. old and I'm pregnant again with another girl in my womb. I don't want two girls, I need a boy.' So the doctor said: 'Ok and what do you want me to do?'

She said: 'I want you to end my pregnancy, and I'm counting on your help with this.'

The doctor thought for a little, and after some silence he said to the lady: 'I think I have a better solution for your problem. It's less dangerous for you too.' She smiled, thinking that the doctor was going to accept her request.

Then he continued: 'You see, in order for you not to have to take care of 2 baby girls at the same time, let's kill the one in your arms. This way, you could rest some before the other one is born. If we're going to kill one of them, it doesn't matter which one it is. There would be no risk for your body if you chose the one in your arms.'

The lady was horrified and said: 'No doctor! How terrible! It's a crime to kill a child! I agree,' the doctor replied. 'But you seemed to be ok with it, so I thought maybe that was the best solution. The doctor smiled, realizing that he had made his point.'

He convinced the mom that there is no difference in killing a girl that's already been born and one that's still in the womb. The crime is the same!

A Poem That Is A True Wake Up Call For Everyone

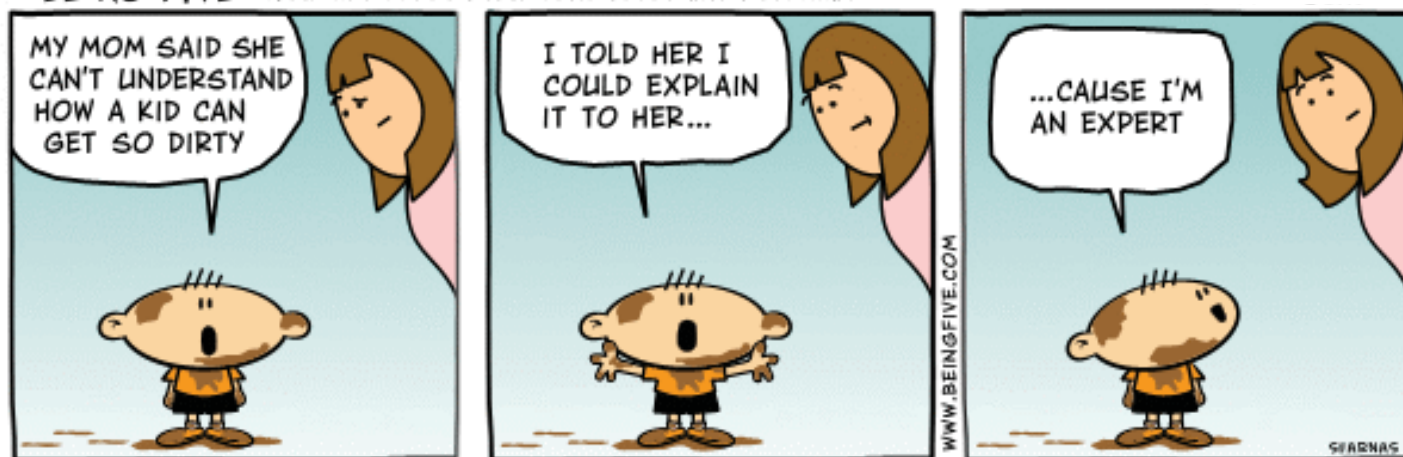

*I ran into a stranger as he passed by,
 'Oh excuse me please' was my reply.
 He said, 'Please excuse me too;
 I wasn't watching for you.'
 We were very polite, this stranger and I.
 We went on our way and we said goodbye.
 But at home a different story is told,
 How we treat our loved ones, young and old..
 Later that day, cooking the evening meal,
 My son stood beside me very still.
 When I turned, I nearly knocked him down.
 'Move out of the way,' I said with a frown.
 He walked away, his little heart broken.
 I didn't realize how harshly I'd spoken.
 While I lay awake in bed, God's still small voice
 came to me and said,
 'While dealing with a stranger,
 common courtesy you use,
 but the family you love, you seem to abuse.
 Go and look on the kitchen floor,
 You'll find some flowers there by the door.
 Those are the flowers he brought for you.
 He picked them himself: pink, yellow and blue.
 He stood very quietly not to spoil the surprise,
 you never saw the tears that filled his little eyes.'
 By this time, I felt very small,
 And now my tears began to fall.
 I quietly went and knelt by his bed;*

*'Wake up, little one, wake up,' I said.
 'Are these the flowers you picked for me?'
 He smiled, 'I found 'em, out by the tree.
 I picked 'em because they're pretty like you.
 I knew you'd like 'em, especially the blue.'
 I said, 'Son, I'm very sorry for the way I acted today;
 I shouldn't have yelled at you that way.'
 He said, 'Oh, Mom, that's okay.
 I love you anyway.'
 I said, 'Son, I love you too,
 and I do like the flowers, especially the blue.'*

*Are you aware that if we died tomorrow, the company
 that we are working for could easily replace us in a matter of days.
 But the family we left behind will feel the loss
 for the rest of their lives.
 And come to think of it, we pour ourselves more into work than into our own family,
 an unwise investment indeed,
 don't you think?
 So what is behind the story?
 Do you know what the word FAMILY means?
 FAMILY = (F)ATHER (A)ND (M)OTHER (I)
 (L)OVE (Y)OU*
